

July 19, 2018 – First Project Update

The Contractor began work on the bike crossing at N. Quince Street that will connect the bike path to the Escondido Transit Center. The Contractor formed and poured two new curb ramps (Figure 1) and a raised median (Figure 2) to complete the concrete work for the new crossing. The remaining striping and signage will be installed with a later phase of the project.

Figure 1. Curb Ramp at N. Quince St. Crossing

Figure 2. Raised Median at N. Quince St. Crossing

The Contractor also began work on the removal and reconstruction of the driveway along Valley Parkway at Centre City Parkway (Figure 3). The new driveway design will accommodate both pedestrian and bike traffic as it transitions to the new bike path crossing at Centre City Parkway.

Figure 3. Bike Path Transition at New Driveway

Construction is continuing on the new improvements at the northeast corner of Centre City Parkway and Valley Parkway. The signal contractor has installed conduit across Centre City Parkway and begun construction of the foundation for the new traffic signal at this intersection.